Notes:

1. Depending on the proposed activity, the review and decision on an application may be undertaken by staff (minor COA) or the Historic Resources Commission (major COA) in accordance with the procedures and standards in the City Code of Ordinances and the Design Guidelines for Fayetteville's Historic Districts and Local Landmarks.
2. A pre-application conference is required prior to submitting this application for a major COA, but it is strongly encouraged in all cases to prepare a complete application and to avoid delays in the review process.
3. Any development within the HLO is required to have a certificate of appropriateness approval before any other development applications is filed; conditions may be attached to an approval.
4. Public notification requirements may include the on-site posting of the meeting date, time, and location for public review. A site visit may also be required for consideration of your application. Your signature on the accompanying Master Application Form authorizes the placement of such notice and allows members of the Historic Resources Commission and/or City staff to enter the property to view the exterior of any buildings or structure on the site.
